EVANGELIST CRITTENTON.

Will Hold His First Meeting in This City Tomorrow Evening.

Preparations are progressing for welcoming Evangelist Crittenton. The first meeting of the series, it is thought, will be held in the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. This evening members of the choir of the different churches will meet after the union prayer meeting in the Presbyterian church. Mr. Wallace, who accompanies the evangelist, will lead the choir at the meetings. The committee on canvassing consists of Henry Chilton, Freeman Tallman and H. I. Hoekensberry.

The committee on music is composed of Anson Bayley, Professor Thomas and John E. Bone.

A committee of ushers has been appointed from the different churches as follows: First Presbyterian, Robert Brodie, W. T. Price and M. D. Lathrop, chairman; second Presbyterian, M. L. Oliver; Methodist, Pierce Butler, Philip Felts and L. D. Wolfe; Baptist, E. J. Bly, O. T. Utley and A. S. Lewis. The committee on finance and advertising consists of Pierce Butler, W. P. Nye and John H. Hoyt. Miss Anna Curtis will report the meetings for the newspapers.

The evangelist is expected to remain about ten days.

Accident to Councilman W. H. Bate. W. H. Bate, chairman of the common council, while engaged at his duties in the planning mill of T. C. Robinson, met with a sad mishap by which his left eye was destroyed. He was making a letter box for Fern hall, Crystal Lake, with a circular saw when a splinter of the wood was shot with great force into his eye. He walked to the office of Dr. Fletcher, but the injury could not be saved, though no further injury appeared.

of our store as often as you please, just look at our stock. Everybody is welcome; nobody will bore you by importuning you to purchase, but the best attention of everybody here is at your service. Just now our efforts are devoted to descriptions of our summer shoes, but we can't do justice to them. This is the reason we want you to come and see with your own eyes this excellent stock of footwear.

Men's and Women's Shoes and Oxfords in blacks and colors were never so well shaped to fit the feet as they are this season—that is, if they are fitted properly; we'll see to that, if you'll let us.

Our Children's Department must not be overlooked; everything in it, desirable and suited for busy little feet, and prices low enough, "quality considered," to convince the most economical buyers.
